will be a new experience. And we will both love it. Don't forget the time you ran into the tree outside your house, I thought Don was going to pull every hair out of your head, but of course you wouldn't have remembered anyways. We both did the same on our packets in Survival SKILLS, she screwed you every time. You should have been excempt too. Remember the times I slept over, I don't remember you snoring then. I will never forget the time you got us home from the movies, that night the roads were a glaze of ice. I still don't believe you got us home. If there are anymore arguements I promise not to get as physical. Don't forget the proms, we looked better this year, but had more fun last. I still wish that we had done something to Miss Troy before we all left. But I guess she knows how we all feel. I want you to know and remember that I love you and always will, no matter what happens.

Love You Allways,
Debbie

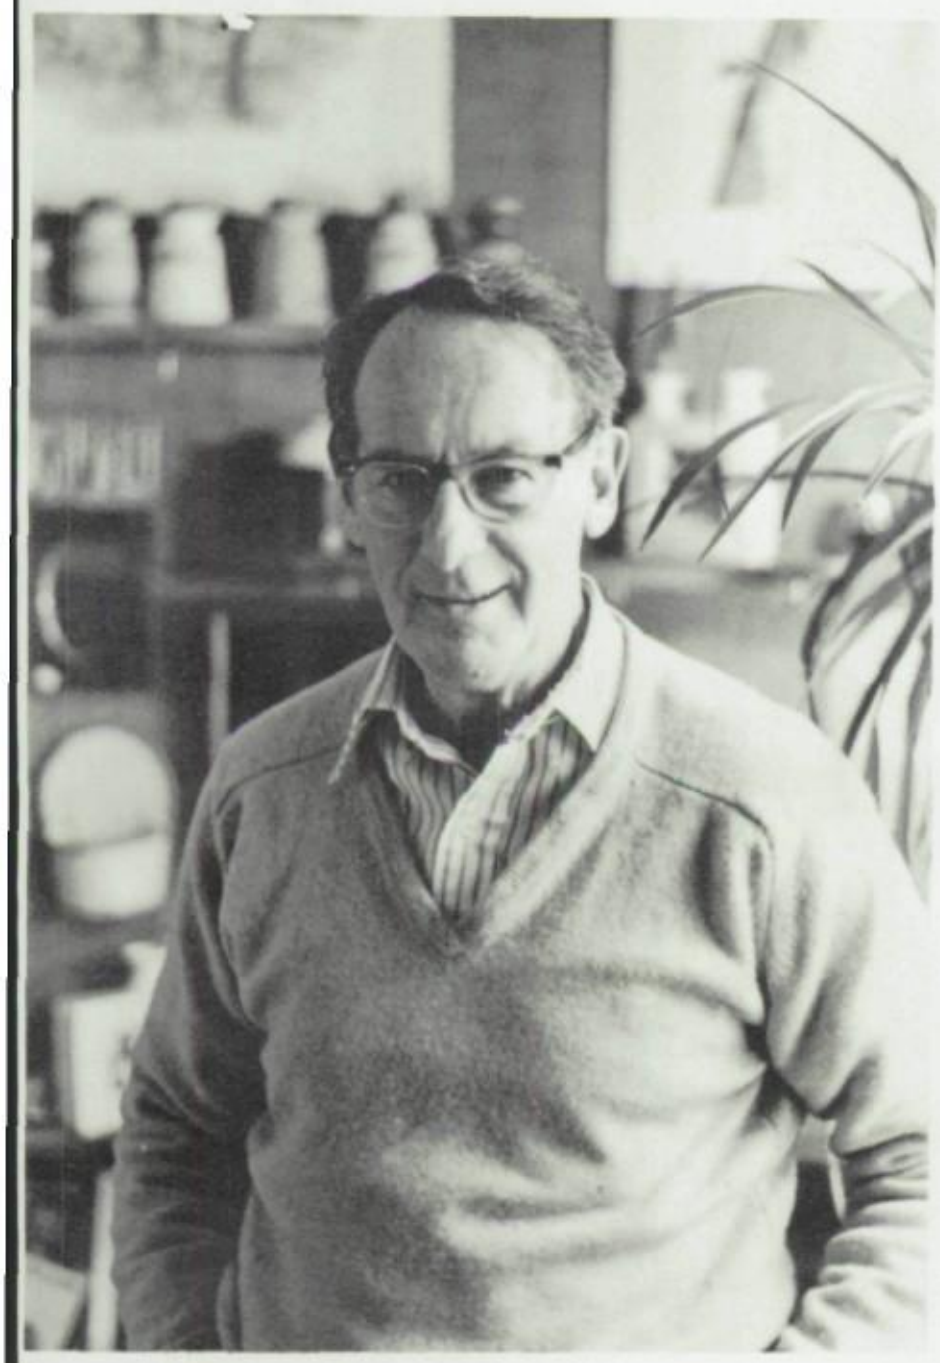
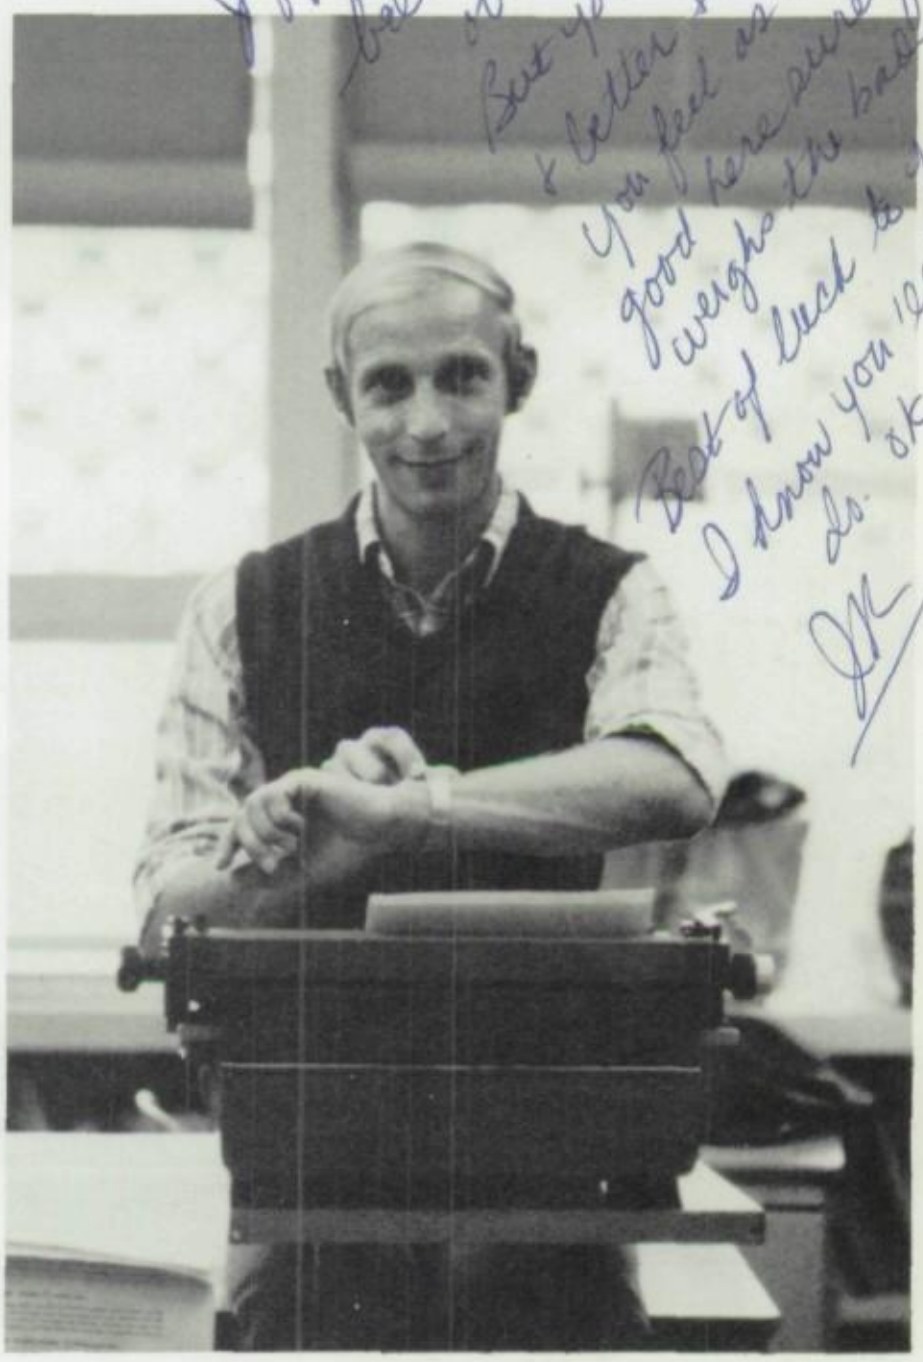
DEDICATION





Jeff - it's hard to believe that it's all over for you here at GCS - but you are off to bigger things! I hope you feel as I do - the better good here surely outweighs the bad. Best of luck to you - I know you'll do OK!

Mr. Meredith Hoag graduated from Greenwich High School and then attended Cornell University. He began teaching math at G.C.S. in 1960. A few years later he became a science instructor in the Junior High.

Throughout his years at G.C.S., Mr. Hoag was active in the photography club and many other activities.

He retired from teaching in 1976 and ours was the last class to have Mr. Hoag as a teacher. The class of 1981 thanks him for his encouragement and inspiration.

Mr. James Ramsey graduated from the State University at Albany. He came to Greenwich in 1972, contributing his business skills to the G.C.S. curriculum. Mr. Ramsey has been advisor to many classes and has given much of his time to various activities. He has devoted much of his time to the class of 1981. His tremendous efforts made our Junior Prom a success and his willingness to help has been invaluable to us. Thanks to his untiring efforts, school is our for the class of 1981.

THE CLASS OF 81 THANKS YOU!

MESSAGE TO THE SENIORS

To the Class of 1981:

School's Out! But never stop growing!

Perhaps there should be a point in our working lives where we feel our contributions have been such tha we are entitled to take it easy from that point on.

Maybe there should be, but I doubt if it happens very often before retirement. The minute you start t relax on the oars, you begin to lose your value. Someone else, with more drive and ambition, could step i and do a better job in your place.

Let's face it — what you accomplished yesterday is water over the dam. More important now is what yo can do today and tomorrow. When the things you did yesterday and last year are more important tha your ambitions for tomorrow and next year, it's time to let someone else take over.

This may seem like a hard, unfeeling way to look at things — but isn't it the truth? No success in final – no success can last forever.

One of the tragedies of the working world is the number of people, at all levels, who have "mentally retired. They are resting on their laurels — just along for the ride. They aren't looking for new challenges not interested in doing things better.

Like anyone who coasts, there's only one place for them to go — downhill. Keep alive, keep challengin yourselves until the day you quit. When growth stops, decay begins.

Good luck as you continue growing toward your life's ambitions.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1975, we were introduced to Junior High life by Mr. Hoag, Mr. McGuire, Mrs. Brynteson and Mr. Morabito and his 15-page papers. Class officers were Glenda White, president; Jim Douglas, vice-president; Pete Birdsinger, secretary; and Mary Beth Davis, treasurer.

The survivors moved on to face Mr. Kuba, Miss Killam, Mrs. Lauder and Miss Kirby. Helping us through 8th grade were our president, Jim Douglas; vice-president, David Woods; secretary, Jennifer Ruddock; and treasurer, Lucina Hughes.

With David Woods, president; Jennifer Ruddock, vice-president; Laura Corey, secretary; and Debbie Polley, treasurer, we entered 9th grade --- High School! First we conquered our magazine drive with Sally Schafer, the top money-maker; then on to Mr. Eggleston, Mrs. Degner, Mr. Roods, and Mr. Lomasney!! Other victims of our 9th grade year were Mr. Wells, Mr. Ramsey and Mrs. Roberson, who chose to retire.

We truly were "superior" sophomores! We were really prepared to pull rank on the freshmen. Leading the attack was Dave Woods, president; Wendy Skellie, vice-president; Laura Corey, secretary; and Debbie Polley, treasurer. With Mr. Lomasney at the helm, we began our year by decorating a float for the Homecoming Parade. The first two weeks finished Mr. Gross; we moved on to Mr. Porter, Mrs. Austin (and her dreaded fetal pigs), Miss Maloney and Mr. Nolder. A high point of the end of the year was selecting our class rings and saying goodbye to Mr.Holmes (better known as "Big Tom".)

The big Green Machine rolled into the Junior year with David Woods at the throttle. Assisting were Wendy Skellie, vice-president; Laura Corey, secretary; and Debbie Polley, treasurer. Wallie's was chosen for our ring banquet, with Mrs. Van Driel as guest speaker. This did not discourage our advisors, Miss Troy and Mrs. Rainer, so we continued on!! We were more interested in our prom than Christmas, and in December we were on our way to "Stairway to Heaven". Despite 5 months preparation, the last week was hectic! That was when we learned that no one knew how to "hang" a parachute, but with lots of cooperation from Mr. Ramsey, Mrs. Rainer, and Miss Troy, we did it!! We danced to the music of "Reflections" and chose Laura Corey and Jeff Wilbur as the royal couple. Attendants were Wendy Boyce and Ken Facin; Wendy Skellie and Chris Briglin; Debbie Polley and Chris Degner. After the prom we went to Panza's on Saratoga Lake for dinner. Topping off the evening was a party at Barb Wilkinson's and breakfast at Angela Paul's.

Mount St. Helen's took a backseat, as we erupted into our Senior year. Our first challenge as seniors was to paint the Senior Lounge. Having recuperated from painting, we then held our annual class picnic at the Salem Fish and Game Club. With the help of our advisors, Mrs. Degner and Miss Quenelle, and class officers, Jeff Wilbur, president; Wendy Skellie, vice-president; Laura Corey, secretary; and Stacey Morrison, treasurer; our next step was to plan the first Senior-Alumni Dance, which we held to brighten up the dreary winter months.

After spending the winter with our usual antics, yearbook deadlines, and basketball practice, our thoughts turned to graduation. With June approaching, the time was coming when we could finally say, "School's Out!". Watch out world!!

Respectfully,
The Class of 1981

CLASS WILL

We the Class of 1981 being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath all our worldly possessions in the following manner:
To the Class of 1986 we leave the 7th graders with one more year of Junior High.
To the Class of 1985 we leave them their first year of torture in the Senior High.
To the Class of 1984 we leave them all the excitement of ordering their class rings.
To the Class of 1983 we leave the hopes they will enjoy Mr. Nestle's class as much as we did.
To the Class of 1982 we leave all the privileges you think you have as a Senior but really don't.

Chris Almy leaves Miss Maloney one less gossip to talk about all the good looking guys.
Todd Anderson just leaves.
Tim Austin leaves in order to keep the classes to come, as energetic as ours was. I leave Meatball with the "Saratoga Connection.
Pam Bailey leaves Amy Bailey with hopes she will have a lot of fun in her next three years at GCS.
Don Bartolucci leaves Greenwich with two new records; and the track team without a pointman.
Leslie Battis leaves Mr. Brab one less "people" to laugh at.
Julie Bell leaves New York State behind and Mrs. Merrill with one less dumb founded expression to look at.
Mike Booth leaves my spinach eating ability to Roach and Gordy, in hopes of improving the technique.
Wendy Lu Boyce leaves Linda D. with only two more years to kiss Miss Troy's patoot during basketball season, Good Luck.
Pete Birdsinger leaves all the tapes of the Who and the Stones to Jeff Kelly so he can listen to them when he's a senior.
Chris Briglin leaves Blince all the BS, guts, and determination to get through Brablc and three more years.
Sue Blanchet just leaves.
Glenn Campbell leaves the hope that Mr. Holmes can find a car that fits him.
Dan Chambers just leaves.
Ron Chase leaves his bike repairing ability to Meatball so he can keep his dirt bike on the move!
Laura Corey leaves Miss Killam a book entitled "How to Speak Southern" in hopes that she will finally learn how to speak Englis correctly; Mrs. Degner with no one screaming in her dining room after the play's over and Susan with no one left to tell her t shut up.
Laura Cushing leaves Laura Corey, Wendy Boyce, Sue Nielsen, Rebecca Storms, and Pam Foelsch one less person to cruise aroun with and cause trouble. To Beatle Pearson and Mary Darrow identical pairs of Wonderwoman Underoo's to wear in gym clas together.
Mary Darrow leaves GCS 12 more Darrows and Beatle one less person to run to the Grand Union with.
Karen Davis leaves GCS with no intentions of ever returning.
Mary Beth Davis leaves the second seat on the BOCES bus to anyone who thinks they can hack it.
Chris Degner leaves the inability to understand Dr. Confusion (alias Mr. Brablc) to Karen and Andy and some height to someon who wants it and thinks they can handle it.
Bruce Derby leaves Mr. Ramsey a full faced hat to cover his ugly face and the honor of being on the F.D.A. list.
David Disque leaves Rob Dewey one pair of green shorts with two burn holes in hopes that he'll learn not to leave hot things lyin around.
Mike Doriski leaves.
Jim Douglas leaves Beth Martin a repair bill from the past and a crash helmet for the future.
Bill Durham leaves Mike Murphy at least 5 more years of high school; Corey Nolan with no one to do his homework; Keeter Boyce roll of bandages.
Julie English leaves Heidi Skellie with nobody to try to talk into going to tractor pulls and to her brothers, she leaves in hopes tha they can fix their own lunches.
Ken Facin leaves Roach and Gordy a keg so they can keep the tradition going.
Randy Fung leaves Mr. Nestle a bag of Halls and a box of Kleenex and a book called Little Red Choo-Choo (who said, I think I ca

David Greene leaves one less person to do push-ups for Mr. Holmes.
Forrest Greene leaves Mr. Bujan the Driver Ed car in one piece.
Sue Harrington leaves Maryellen with her foot stepping high.
Cecil Hicks gave his front door to Chris Degner but leaves his back door to Steve Stoddard.
George Houser leaves his sister, Charlene, to carry her own bassoon.
Abigil Honeywell leaves Mr. Bujan one box of cherry cough drops and a book of riddles. To Claudia one more fun filled year with Mr Brablc's physics course.
Cheryl Huffman leaves Miss Vega the memory of that great day back in January of '80.
Lucina Hughes leaves Mr. Bujan Chocolate Chip cookies and punch, and Sara the book entitled "Getting to School on Time Preferably with Dry Hair."
Rodney Hughes leaves Tex some good study habits in hopes that he will get out of Afro-Asian, Chris Hughes and Steve Gillis fiv more years of high school, hopefully - Corey Nolan a bandana for football practice.
John Jennings leaves for the Old Station with a beer in one hand and a dart in the other, sorry Roach you'll have to wait until nex year.
Lisa Jette leaves her hall walking ability to Erin O'Malley.
Ericka Jones leaves Sue Corey two more boring years of Home Ec. and Miss Rainer one less pain.
Karen Keays leaves a notebook and two pencils for Amy Barnes and Ronnie Hewitt to take notes on Dave for her.
Bill Keller just leaves.
Pennie Kretchmar leaves Mr. McClay a season ticket to get into Malta, Albany Saratoga Raceway and to her brother Brendon package of Nice & Easy hair color so he can continue to dye his hair that ravishing white.
Sharon Langlois leaves GCS with the thought of never returning.
Ted Lawrence leaves.

Beth Martin leaves Karen Degner a sports bra so she doesn't do a "double strapper in every race.
Yvette McCormick leaves Gordie Waters with one more year and a reassurance that he better behave himself; or else!
Charles McKernon leaves Mr. Brablc with one less headache and loudmouth.
Ron McKernon leaves.
Robert McKernon leaves Mr. Holmes one less McKernon, and Mr. McClay a rubber duck to go with the other one.
Colleen McReynolds leaves Ms. Troy with one less person to collect splinters for her and a book on the benchers point of view. To Sue Bulger, hopes that she will not have to walk to school alone and a new exhaust system for Wanda's car. To Doc only two of us left to go.
Tami Meek leaves with a thanks to everyone who was involved with or followed the "Greenwich Girls". To Heidi the keys to the Lincoln in hopes she can keep "Crash" Meek and Copilot Murph from behind the wheel. To Sandy Hemming, her catching ability if she can find it.
Stacey Morrison leaves a "jug" of pink lemonade to Karen Vurraro to use for what ever she likes.
Robert Moy leaves Miss Vega a bottle of aspirin for all the headaches that his brother will give her next year.
Dave Mullen leaves Roach his beard growing ability and 101 ways to get into bars before the age of 18.
Doug Muller leaves his parking space to another capable Oldsmobile.
Phil Murphy leaves taking Lily with him.
Sue Nielsen leaves Becky Storms a free pass to Cambridge School in hopes she'll see Scott Shiland. To Laura Cushing, a prayer that she'll go to a school with better looking guys.
Bob Noble leaves Kyle Mosher a jar of Miracle Whip and his brother Dan four more years of Dr. Fitzgerald.
Mehmet Ozkurt leaves his Chemistry and physics in Mr. Brablc's room to whoever wants it.
Mary Paquette leaves Miss Maloney one less person to listen to arguing in class.
Laurie Parker leaves the back of bus #57 to anyone who can handle it.
Angela Paul leaves Erin and Lee her cheering abilities with the hope that they can be on top of the "mounts".
Dianne Pearson leaves her leather pants to anyone who has enough class to wear them and to Mary Darrow one less person to rummage through the garbage for her retainer.
Karen Perry leaves Mrs. VanDriel one less student to shoot the bull with about horses.
Glenn Petterson leaves Mr. Brablc's "expert" guidance to future members of the Honor Society.
Chris Petty leaves the teachers with no more Pettys to go through GCS.
Amy Pollard leaves Steve Stoddard a tube of Vaseline to carry with him wherever he goes.
Debbie Polley leaves glad to be rid of Miss Troy.
Linda Proch leaves Miss Troy one less smiling benchwarmer.
Patty Pruiksma leaves for bigger and better places.
Sandra Raney leaves Ann Ryder with all my troubles with Jack Miller.
Jennifer Ruddock leaves the last child of all large families the secret of getting the teachers to pass you just so they will get you out of their classes.
Nick Sabo leaves Ron Facin his weight lifting ability in hopes that he can lift more.
Per Sawyer would leave his tennis playing ability but Roach would rather have his guzzling ability.
Sally Schafer leaves her migrain headaches to future students of Mrs. Merrill and Mr. Brablc, thanks Mrs. Austin for helping her through them.
Ed Sharp leaves Matt Smith and Darrell Hill a couple of guitars and a set of drums so they can reform J.T. Speed. To Tex Beayon his fishing skills.
Bob Sheridan just leaves.
Wendy Skellie leaves Marcia Cary her old hockey stick so that she can trip people up.
Sandra Skiff leaves Mr. Bujan some of her land with no strings attached.
Sandy Sloan leaves Mrs. Rainer the thought that there are two more Sloans to come yet!
Lisa Somma leaves Becky Jennings a pair of jogging sneakers 'cause tramps like us, baby, we were born to run.
Kristine Stewart leaves Valerie Nielsen a golf club and Mr. Brooks an orange ball so he can see where she hit it.
Stacie Strainer leaves DOCTOR Fitzgerald a step ladder in case he ever decides to lower himself to "our level" and Mr. Holmes (Too Tall Tommy) with one less nonconformist.
Kevin Tefft leaves his mechanical ability to pump gas at Top Gas to anyone who can find it!
Mary Tuttle leaves all of her unexcused excuses to Debbie Gillis in hopes that they work better for her than they did for Mary.
Kris Vanderzee leaves J.R. Mangino a pair of skis and a pair of track sneakers so he can keep up with him on and off the mountain. He also leaves Steve Jette his ultimate running ability and his good looks because he needs it.
Ray VanGuilder leaves his massive biceps to anyone who can find them and the rest of him to Keisha Timms.
Kim Vurraro leaves a canteen and a port-a-pottie to Chuckie Bujan for in between classes. A tape recorder for Mr. Nolder so that he can tape his life story instead of telling it each year.
Brenda Waite leaves Laura and Kuzi her locker and the advice to stay away from Argyle and to stay in Cossayuna.
Scott Weir leaves Greenwich looking for a pot of gold and Ketter Boyce looking for a drink.
Glenda White leaves all her beauty to Beth Martin so everyone will stare at her.
Jeff Wilbur leaves Roach a clip and Gordie something to break it in with.
Barb Wilkinson leaves Ed Niles and Lee Derby a book entitled Silly Little Games to insure Dr. Fitzgerald of another year of "fun and excitement".
Elaine Williams leaves Cronin 75¢ so she can wash Jim's car and help the cowardly lion see the light.
Marianne Woodcock leaves Jay Campbell a 60-minute tape of her best laugh and a book of interesting medical facts and to Craig and Boonie she leaves each a beer mug in hopes that it will give them enough luck to someday win the chug-a-lug contest at the Cellar.
Dave Woods leaves to write a novel entitled "Why Mr. Holmes never made the top 10 in best dressed men."
Sheri Young just leaves.
Todd Zeno leaves his brother Scott his ability to get into trouble and get away with it.

PROPHECY

The year is 1996 and the Greenwich class of 1981 has gathered for its 15th year reunion. BOB NOBLE president of a small, unnamed island in the South Pacific, inhabited by midgets, has allowed us to hold ou reunion there. Thanks, Bob.

Former class president, JEFF WILBUR, now owner of Mad magazine, with the help of his faithful aid DEBBIE POLLEY, have scoured the world, searching for the surviving members of the class of 1981

First contacted was new DJ sensation, Fubar, formerly known as BARB WILKINSON, who ha recently replaced Wolfman Jack as the host of the Midnight Special. She will serve as master c ceremonies for tonight's event.

All is ready and the guests are arriving. Pro golfer, DAVE WOODS, and his constant companion, forme Playmate of the Year, LINDA PROCH just entered and have immediately been swamped by autograp hounds. No, not autograph hounds, its Sheik DON BARTOLUCCI, accompanied by his 37 wives, who ha just arrived all the way from Schuylerville. Next to arrive is aspiring rock star, HOWARD GARDEPHE who was heard to say that he cancelled his first concert from the moon to attend the reunion. Look, it former photographer for Sports Illustrated, CHRIS BRIGLIN. Chris has recently joined the unemploy ment ranks after forgetting to take off the lens cap and has since put in an application with Humpet Dumpety magazine. What's that in the sky? Oh, it's CHRIS DEGNER in his new space shuttle. He's jus arrived from Florida, where he is employed by NASA as a space cadet. The medical wonders (?) of ou class, Dr. TED LAWRENCE, Dr. LESLIE BATTIS, medical examiner, SALLY SCHAFER, pharmacis TODD ANDERSON, and their team of fine nurses, JULIE ENGLISH, MARY DARROW, PEACHE DAVIS, and MARIANNE WOODCOCK, after many years have finished their extensive testing on forme physics teacher, Mr. Brablc, and are going to announce their results ..... they still don't understan him.

Watch out everybody, here comes professional mooch, SUSAN NIELSEN. Sue has just made it into th Guiness Book of World Records, after successfully mooching plane fare to get to the reunion. I don believe it! Can it be? Yes, it's zoologist DIANNE PEARSON. Dianne has been living in seclusion sinc graduation, studying monkeys. It's not surprising, we all knew she was bananas.

Former great athletes, KRIS VANDERZEE and PER SAWYER have just arrived. Kris just hasn't bee the same since he hit that tree and Per had to retire when the only job he could get was ball-chaser a Wimbeldon. They now reside at social worker PENNY KRETCHMAR and LISA SOMMA's Home fo Over the Hill Jocks, in the booming metropolis, North Greenwich. Newcomer to the home, GLENN PETTERSON, former hockey goalie for the Montreal Canadiens, had to retire after trying unsuccessfull to stop a hockey puck with his face. Glenn doesn't have the IQ he used to, but he's being counselled b TIM AUSTIN and LILY WHITE. Their motto is stay young and have fun. Just look at their mos successful cases, JOHN JENNINGS and PHIL MURPHY. Both are still celebrating their high schoo graduation.

The newest owner of the Top Gas conglomerate, JIM DOUGLAS and his trusty assistant, KEVIN TEFFT, have just arrived. After grossing their first million, they have retired to the golf course and lef the running of the company to their capable (?) secretaries, KAREN KEAYS, SHARON LANGLOIS, an KAREN DAVIS. We know that they'll run it just like they used to run the high school office. Good luc guys!!

For tonight's entertainment we have, direct from Carnegie Hall, the near great, former Greenwich ban members, LUCINA HUGHES, JENNIFER RUDDOCK, and RANDY FUNG. No Lucina has just left th stage because Jennifer and Randy insist on doing their version of dueling saxophones.

Radical feminist, STACIE STRAINER is seen now engaged in a heated argument with belly-dancer KIM VURRARO. Kim is appearing for a limited time only at BRUCE DERBY's new nightclub, the Olde Station. Bouncers, KEN FACIN and DAVE MULLEN say business is better than it's been in fifteen years And their best customer, BILL DURHAM, totally agrees. BOB SHERIDAN is seen there many times week, trying to get signatures for his petition to make the Moose Gang an endangered species. Over at th punch bowl, we find Professors ABIGAIL HONEYWELL and LAURA COREY lecturing DOUG MILL ER. He still insists that the highlight of his school years was Mrs. Van Driel's study hall.

Here comes the calvary? No, it's just GLENDA WHITE, KAREN PERRY, and WENDY BOYCE rriving on horseback. What class! But who's this arriving in a hearse? It's funeral home director, LAURA USHING. She didn't make it as a nurses' aid so she decided to help out a few of her former patients. ormer FFA members GLENN CAMPBELL, GEORGE HOUSER, BOB McKERNON, BOB MOY, and ON McKERNON have just arrived from their farm in Kansas. When asked what their latest project was hey replied they are trying to turn their unsold oranges from high school into gasoline.

Is there a doctor in the house? High school track stars ELAINE WILLIAMS, PATTY PRUIKSMA, MY POLLARD, BETH MARTIN, and GIA ROBINSON have just collapsed in exhaustion, after unning all the way from Greenwich, across the world's longest extension bridge, built by RODNEY HUGHES' construction firm. Cheering them on were Greenwich socialities, ANGELA PUAL, LISA ETTE, and YVETTE McCORMICK. Obviously they haven't lost their cheering voices since high school. More athletes from our class are arriving now. The first professional field hockey team has been estab- ished. Founding members, STACEY MORRISON, TAMI MEEK, and WENDY SKELLIE have just hallenged football greats, NICK SABO and DAVID DISQUE to a very sporting competition. The first nnual chair-ripping contest is about to begin. This should bring back memories of the Senior Lounge. rtist ED SHARP will never take credit for the masterpiece created on those walls.

A large jet has just landed outside. ROSEMARIE BRADT, BRENDA WAITE, MARY TUTTLE, and MEG GRIFFIN have arrived from their mansion, located "high" in the mountains of Transylvania.

Rock groupies, RAY VAN GUIDLER and PETE BIRDSINGER have been following the Rolling Stones nd Foghat these past fifteen years, but decided to attend tonight's festivities when they learned no oncerts were scheduled.

Siamese twins, JULIE BELL and MARY PAQUETTE celebrated their twentieth year of friendship by eing joined at the hip.

Now taking the spotlight are the newest members of the Not-ready-for-prime-time players, RON CHASE and BILL KELLER. Their act will never make the Family Hour!! Other class celebritities have ust arrived. Direct from Hollywood, here are gossip columnists SUE HARRINGTON and CHRIS ALMY. Working in the office for Dr. Fitzgerald really got them interested in what everyone else was doing!!! They re seen wearing the latest fashions of designer SANDRA MATTISON. Personal assistants, LAURIE PARKER and CHERI YOUNG have worked for her since their days of training at BOCES. Convicted elon, SANDRA SKIFF, accompanied by her police escort, SCOTT WEIR, has just entered. Sandra, ormer accountant for billionaire CHARLIE McKERNON, was arrested for embezzlement. MIKE DOR- SKI, president of Charlie's computer company, discovered the loss. Quite a change from an ex-Honor ociety member.

Race car driver, ERICKA JONES, has just arrived in a screech of tires. Her faithful mechanic TODD ENO and pit crew, members, CHRIS PETTY and SUE BLANCHET always knew her driver ed classes would take her a long way.

The farming Greene brothers, DAVID and FORREST, have successfully purchased the entire town of Easton and have begun perfecting new farming techniques.

Many of the members of our graduating class were not able to attend tonight. CHERYL HUFFMAN, KRIS STEWART, and COLLEEN McREYNOLDS decided to go into business together after high school, nd they are now running a day care center for all the children of Greenwich.

SANDRA RANEY was not able to attend tonight because she is now employed at Greenwich High as he new Home-ec. teacher. She just couldn't get enough of it when she was a student.

DAN CHAMBERS and JAY VANVRANKEN are busy tonight. They are trying to find a shortcut from Greenwich to BOCES because they are now employed as bus drivers. Both agree, after riding it in the past, hat there has to be a better way.

Last to arrive is diplomat from Turkey, MEHMET OZKURT. Now that we are all gathered, we take ime to reflect on all the things we did before school was out.

He said that . . .

What a relief !!!

The National Honor Society started its new year by electing officers: President-Jim Douglas; Vice President-Glenn Petterson; Secretary-Sandra Skiff; Treasurer-Chris Degner; and Tutorial Chairperson-Wendy Skellie.

Ted Lawrence joined us in September. He was previously a member of the Warrensburg chapter.

We had a car wash at Carmody Ford's to raise money for our trip to the Alpine Slide at Bromley.

After much controversy, our 25th annual induction ceremony was held on November 21 at 6:30 PM at the Methodist Church. Our guest speakers were Sally Gifford Filion, a member of 1957 charter chapter, and Mr. James Briglin. Reverend Cass Gilbert offered the invocation and benediction. Four seniors and fourteen juniors were inducted, joining the thirteen previous members. After the ceremony, an Italian banquet was served to the new inductees, their parents, and guests.

All members of the society participate in the tutorial program.

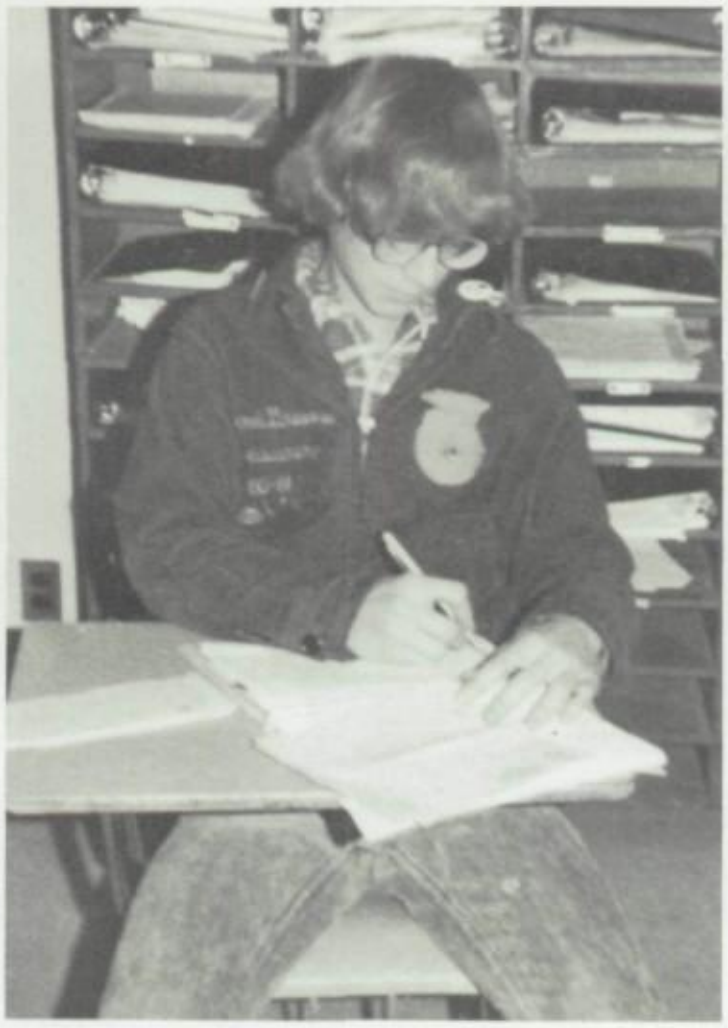
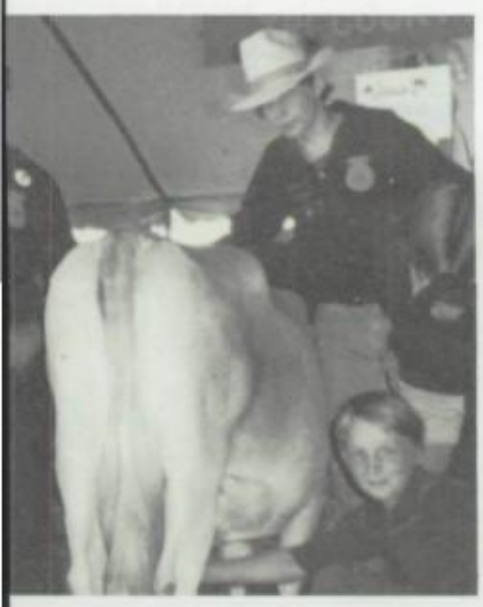
FFA

The Greenwich FFA is an organization of agriculture students. We participated and were successful in many FFA activities this past year. Our chapter meeting team placed first in the state, and our Farm Forum and Extemporaneous speaker placed 2nd in the state. The Horse Judging team was the best in the state, and in dairy judging we won 4th place at Delhi Judging Tour. Our FFA Farmland at the County Fair was very successful, and more than 10,000 people went through. We sold 1,000 cases of citrus fruit. Our chapter is looking forward to being equally successful in the coming year.

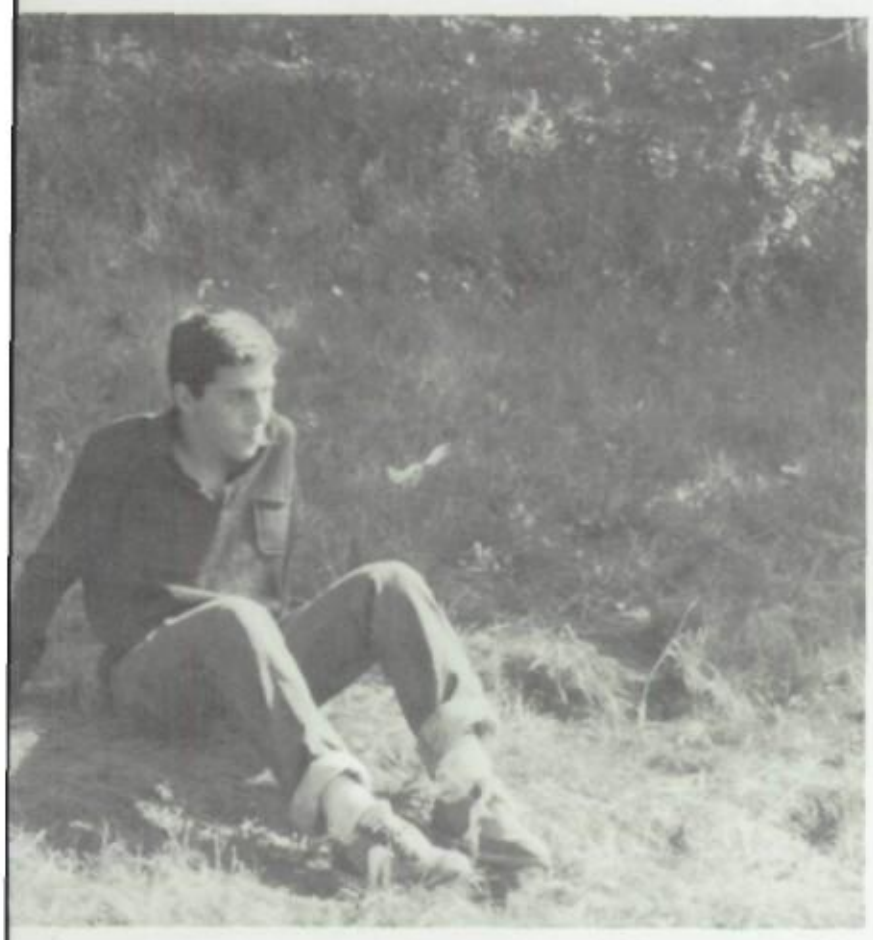




AFS

The Greenwich chapter of the AFS is in its 15th year. Abigail Honeywell participated in the Summer Abroad program and travelled to Norway. Peter Simoneau is in Honduras as an exchange student for the year. Mehmet OzKurt is our foreign exchange student from Turkey. Activities for the year included a picnic at the Degner's, a party at the Rymph's, and a concert given by the Union College Glee Club in February.

MEHMET FROM TURKEY



This year in Greenwich has been full of experiences for me. When I first came to United States I found myself in the middle of a different life. I tried to fit in with this new kind of life with the help of my family.

I have learned a lot about everything. I gained a lot of experiences which will be very useful to me in planning my future life.

I was really happy to make friends here. I want to thank all of my friends for their help and friendship. I also want to thank my family. They gave me a lot of love and helped me with all of my problems and showed me how to solve them.

I hope to see some of you in the future.

"Ne Motlv Turkum Diyene."

If I Forgot Anyone, Sorry!

Wilb,

Now where can I start this little journal, ha ha ha. I know, remember in third grade, your were so funny Mrs. Brundige always tipped over your desk and made you clean it. Remember playing doctor with Stephaine in the closet. That use to be the excite of the day, that and tipping your desk over.

Then there came our mischief adventures. Every night after six I would get fifty cent, go to your house and we would run to Skiff's for candy. After we would get tomatos and go to your Grandmothers house and "chuck" at cars. Remember we hit that car and ran down John St. That was pretty wild. How about that time when Trude ran through six fences on Academy St. That was pretty funny. I remember the first time you and I use to get Drunk. You would say to me to freak me out, "Watch out for the holes, don't fall through the holes in the road." Remember out in back of your house the very first time I got drunk on a quart of Bomstam and a beer. We got caught tripped down Angela's stairs because Debbie suspected something was up. Remember that and Jack & Sue day we didn't have school and you came up and got stoned from your sister's shit. Then I chased you around the house with a butcher knife and freaked you out. Now to come up to date we had some pretty great times getting drunk, especially on the weekdays during Sch Don't forget the times going over to your brother's house and calling those cows over. Remember you were wondering where the toothpaste was and you were sitting on it that was so funny. Well I guess thats enough laugh for this page.

P.S. you better be doing some partying with us guys) too.

Ben

Jeff,
well To all most my feist boyfriend from 2grade to 4th grade and all the other times after that. Jeff we have been through a lot together and I never forget all the parties that we had at your house and my mine.
Good Luck at college ya will shine.
never forget the cabins we built and dont ever forget the Jingle Bunnies that was something eles. You are a real sweet guy and I love to party with yu, ya make me laugh all the time. I'll never forget ~~the~~ the time that ya lock the keys in the car in Suth Glens Falls. When ya have time give me a call and meet me in the cemetary - well I better see ya over the summer, I know I will, At all the parties
+ the old Station. Be their ↔ Love always "8/"
(Sue)
(mean JO-)

Jeff, really glad to have known you + we had some good times I'm glad it's over. Hope you don't have to many problems with your family at the end of the year. Always stay a really great person and you're a really great friend. Hope you have a terrific, fabulous summer. Have fun, be safe, and remember all the parties we had at your house and mine. Good luck in college. Love always Sue
Jeff,
Have a nice
Summer. Atleast
you haven't gotta
take Miss Maloney again.
I'll have to take another year of her. TAKE CARE
